

The reason I pay for satellite radio is that it provides me with quality and content that are unavailable on commercial radio; to compete, commercial radio simply has to provide listeners with a similar or better product. The FCC should not prevent satellite radio from providing local oriented content and should reject the NAB's petition 04-160.